CHARLESTON OCEAN RACING ASSOCIATION

2023 CAPTAIN'S RESPONSIBILITY

Competitors participate entirely at their own risk. CORA bears no responsibility for accidents, damage or injuries to yachts of their personnel arising from any cause during CORA races or related activities. By participating in CORA events, each competitor agrees to release the race organizers from any and all liability associated with such competitor's participation in these events to the fullest extent permitted by law.

The Captain or vessel owner shall maintain insurance on the vessel that includes protection and indemnity coverage, third party bodily injury and property damage liability coverage. The limit of such coverage shall be no less than $300,000 and the Captain shall be prepared to produce evidence of such coverage upon request by any CORA officer. Racing in a CORA event without such coverage is prohibited and is the express intent of CORA that compliance be ensured by the Captain irrespective of whether the Captain owns the vessel.

CERTIFICATION AND WAIVER

I hereby certify that I have read the above-entitled CAPTAIN'S RESPONSIBILITY as well as the US Sailing Safety Equipment Requirements, and that the yacht shall conform to all safety requirements as stipulated in the 2023 CORA Skippers Guide (Section 16) and the individual race Sailing Instructions.

On behalf of me and my crew, we hold harmless CORA and its officers, governors and agents from any responsibility or liability for accidents, damages, injuries and/or diseases arising as a result of participating in any CORA activity, including but not limited to racing activities.

Nothing herein shall waive any claim, which my crewmembers or I may have against any office or member of CORA acting in his or her individual capacity as a participant in the races as a captain or crew member competing in CORA races.
